The Prince of Wales Last.

His Royal Highness has been detected in many an act which has startled the Queen. The last of which is said to be Queen. The last of which is said to be the ordering of $30,000 worth of tickets for the Public Library of Kentucky. Her Majesty, it is stated, did not object to his buying liberally, but in the present con-dition of the Prince's finances, she thought $30,000 worth was to much for him to invest. It is asserted that he insisted on sending his order to Governor Bramlette, assuring his royal mother that he knew what he was about, for that as $2,500,000 was to be distributed to the ticket holders. on November 30, and in such gifts as $250,000, $100,000, &c., he would have a splendid chance at one of these splendid prizes, and thus, easily pay his debts.
